

ANSA ASSUNCAO LLP PROMOTES HEATHER WILLIAMS TO PARTNER

Ansa Assuncao LLP is pleased to announce that Heather Williams has been promoted to partner, effective June 1, 2021. Heather is a litigator and business counselor, who brings efficiency, responsiveness, diligence, initiative, and creativity to her client's legal and business challenges. She pairs in-depth knowledge of client business models, objectives, and products, learned from relationships built with client legal and business teams, with sound legal judgment to achieve optimal outcomes for firm clients. Heather advises clients on risk management, commercial and contract issues, and internal protocols, investigations, and legal compliance, recommends best practices, and offers proactive solutions to current and anticipated problems.

Heather's litigation practice is nationwide in scope. She is admitted to practice in Maryland, the District of Columbia, and New York and before the U.S. District Courts for the District of Maryland and the District of Columbia and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. She has appeared in numerous jurisdictions by admission pro hac vice. Heather frequently represents international, nationwide, regional, and local corporations and organizations in commercial and business disputes, construction and contract suits, wrongful death and catastrophic personal injury actions, and transportation, product liability, and employment litigation.

Heather joined the firm in 2012 after completing a clerkship with the Honorable Paul W. Grimm of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland. She is a graduate of the University of Maryland School of Law (J.D., 2011), where she served on the Executive Board of the Maryland Law Review and was the recipient of the Joseph Bernstein Prize for legal writing and the William P. Cunningham Award for service to the school of law, and the University of Rochester (B.A., 2008). Heather currently lives in upstate New York with her husband and son. She operates remotely out of the firm's White Plains, New York and Maryland offices.
